

To whom it may concern

Stating the tribes are asking too much compensation for the use of the land is ridiculous. This is their land and negotiations need to be done thru nation to nation talks. We must respect their right to own the land.

Steven Burton